We are pioneers in the divorce industry.

Our team brings the guidance and expertise your people deserve.

We have over 50 coaches with a combined over 450 years of experience supporting and guiding individuals and families through the divorce process so they get optimal results. Our coaches include former family law attorneys, financial advisors, mental health therapists and more.

We have experts with specialties in every niche including religion, culture, immigration, high conflict, and more.

“When faced with an unimaginable marriage situation, Paulette guided me through each step smoothly to make me feel more grounded. She affirmed my racing thoughts and emotions, which helped me feel more focused and calm about my future. She provided me with the information to allow me to work through the situation, make decisions on my own, and feel in control.

Our Process

We remove the burden of handling your divorcing employees.

As an HR manager and leader in your organization, you shouldn't have to tackle the issue of divorce in the workplace on your own, as it's confusing, difficult to manage and you need a unique set of expertise. Here's how we help.

Fill out our audit form and schedule your consultative session today.

We'll help you determine which of our services will address the divorce issues present in your workplace.

After working with us, your culture will improve, team members will feel expertly guided throughout their divorce, allowing your company to keep producing at a high level.

Why Invest In Our Services?

Every year, divorce costs your company millions of dollars.

Research conducted by Grief Recovery Institute showed that an annual cost of $75 billion to US companies was due to absences and extreme emotional distress due to loss and grief.

With our experienced team of coaches, we can help you decrease this loss of revenue and maintain a positive employee culture.

Working with a divorce coach was the smartest decision I made during this craziness. Kim kept me calm and focused, and together we worked on a plan that gave me a great sense of peace. I didn't need a therapist, I needed a guide and direction. Kim did that and more. The end of my marriage was made easier with Kim by my side, every step of the way.
