COACHING

Guidance & direction

Our coaches keep you and your family's needs in mind. Their unique, all-encompassing perspective helps you make educated divorce decisions, create smart parenting plans, minimize conflict, and reach your best outcomes possible.

We are your thinking partner

Going through a divorce is one of life's most stressful events.

Our coaches help you make better decisions early in the process. We help you keep the anxiety, fear, and confusion at bay so you can continue to function at a high level at work and in life.

Divorce can be overwhelming, scary, and lonely. We are your ally when you cannot find solace elsewhere.

This plan includes access to our Plan Right program featuring a book, a workbook and a 10+ hour video course to help you create the plan that is just right for you.

A perfect match

We have more than 50 coaches with expertise in areas including:

High conflict, complicated financial issues, special needs children, religious & cultural divorce, foreign languages, LGBTQ+, personality disorders, immigration issues, military, chronic illness, parent alienation, and much more.
